Colossians 3:1-2 Since, then, you have been raised with Christ, set your hearts on things above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. [2] Set your minds on things above, not on earthly things. (NIV)

Colossians 3:1-2 So if you're serious about living this new resurrection life with Christ, act like it. Pursue the things over which Christ presides. [2] Don't shuffle along, eyes to the ground, absorbed with the things right in front of you. Look up, and be alert to what is going on around Christ, that's where the action is. See things from his perspective. (MSG)

*Watch where you are going. Good advice if you are driving. Is it good advice for Christians? What does it mean to watch where we are going? Colossians reminds us that our focus should not be this earth nor the things of this earth. Our focus should be the Lord Jesus... after all that is where we are going. The Message tells us not to be absorbed with the things right in front of you. Don't make what is happening here and now the focus. Instead center your thoughts and heart on Jesus Christ the Lord.

PRAYER: Please Lord, help me to see things from Your point of view. Help me always to remember that YOU see so much more than I can ever see. Help me to live my life from Your perspective not my own.
